LOCAL NEWS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:56 a. m. and sets 4:48 p. m. High water at 11:57 a. m. and 11:28 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Thursday; light variable winds.

Weddings.

Mr. William A. Moore, jr., and Miss Marian, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Hopkins, were married at the Second Presbyterian Church this morning, in the presence of a large number of their friends, many coming from far away portions of Maryland and North Carolina. The pulpit was prettily decorated with palms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke. The happy couple afterwards left for a trip through the eastern States. The ushers were Messrs. George D. Solomon S., and O. Rigby Hopkins, brothers of the bride, and Mr. Harry Demarest.

Mr. Edward Rector, of Rectortown, and Miss Kathryn Olivia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Dodd, of Fairfax, were married in the M. E. Church South this afternoon by Rev. J. W. Bain, of Occoquan. Mrs. Morris Byrne, of Washington, was the matron of honor and Mr. Robert McNeil, of Loudoun, was best man. The ushers were Messrs. J. E. Dodd, C. Hatcher, S. Byrne and Elmer Wolfe, all of Fairfax. The reception was held this evening at Mrs. Elizabeth Deahl's residence on south St. Asaph street.

The wedding of Mr. William Bryant and Miss Marian Twigg Chalmers will take place at St. Paul's Church at 8 o'clock tonight. Rev. P. P. Phillips, the rector, will conduct the ceremony. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Algernon C. Chalmers, and her attendants will be Miss Ruth Bryant as maid of honor, and Misses Margaret Old, of Norfolk; Fannie Chalmers, of Lynchburg, and Lucy Brookes, of Washington, and Agnes Bryant. The bride will be attired in a handsome tailor-made gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed with chiffon, point lace and orange blossoms, the maid of honor will be attired in a Parisian gown of blue crepe de chine with pink chrysanthemums tied with ribbons of pink. The bridesmaids will wear white china silk and carry pink chrysanthemums. The groom's best man will be his brother, Mr. Arthur Herbert Bryant, and the ushers Dr. Louis Greene and Messrs. Gardner L. Booth, Taylor Burke, William Herbert, Arthur Herbert and William Chalmers. After the reception at the church there will be a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Algernon C. Chalmers, on Alfred street, and later Mr. and Mrs. Bryant will leave for their bridal trip. The organist will be Prof. Sherman B. Fowler.

Mr. John Adolphus Humphries, formerly of this city, but of Boston, and Miss Cora Gray, daughter of Mr. R. B. Gray, of St. Louis, formerly of Leesburg, will be married this evening at 8 o'clock in Christ Episcopal Church, in Winchester.

Fight on King Street.

Some excitement was caused on King street between nine and ten o'clock this morning by a fight which took place between a merchant and a man engaged in putting down granolithic pavements. From the evidence in the Police Court, before which the parties were subsequently arraigned, it seems that the contractor heard the merchant had said something detrimental to his interests and had been the cause of him failing to be employed in putting down a new pavement. The merchant denied in conventional language the charge and the dispute which followed culminated in the latter striking the contractor. The two men were going into each other viciously when a minister of the city of herculean proportions, who happened to be near attempted to act the part of a peacemaker, but with poor success, as the contractor, who is a stranger here, supposing he was a belligerent, started to run. A large crowd had gathered in the meantime, and the contractor picked up bricks and stood on the defensive, supposing he was about to be mobbed. A boy, who had espoused the merchant's cause, also seized a brick and threw it at the fleeing pavement-layer. Officer Beach soon appeared on the scene and captured all the parties. The Mayor fined the merchant $5, the youth who threw the brick $2.50 and dismissed the contractor.

Lecture Last Night.

Considering the inclemency of the weather, a good sized audience greeted Prof. Ambrose Macneil, the Scottish orator, at the Opera House last night. The lecture abounded with original ideas and beautiful thoughts, was delivered in an effective manner and was enthusiastically appreciated by the audience. The constitution of the United States and the amendments; the negro question, and many historical points were handled in a masterful manner. He compared the valor of the South in the war of '61 to '65 with other nations, especially Scotland, and placed the Confederate soldier and the heroic women of the South on the highest plane of fame and honor. The speaker was introduced by Commander Graham, of Lee Camp, in a neat and appropriate speech. Seated on the platform were several ex-commanders—and all were in full dress uniform, a compliment to the occasion greatly appreciated by the speaker. The stage was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers, while the old flag of the Confederacy was conspicuous, to which the speaker paid graceful tribute. At the close, a midst applause and congratulations, Prof. Macneil was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers by the ladies of the 17th Virginia Chapter, U. D. C., under whose auspices he appeared.

Police Court Notes.

The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning:
A man charged with assault was fined $5, and a boy who had participated in the affray was made to pay $2.50.
James Bell, colored, charged with defacing the property of Manie Morrison, colored, was fined $5.
A man who had been arrested for being drunk in the street was dismissed for want of evidence.
Two colored women were fined $2.50 each for disorderly conduct.
Courtney Wilson, colored, was fined $2.50 for disorderly conduct.
Only one lodger appeared at the station house last night.

Accident to an Alexandrian.

Mr. Emmett Coffin, of this city, while out hunting yesterday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock near Cutler's station, on the Southern Railway, was seriously injured by the accidental discharge of his gun. The entire load entered his right arm. The unfortunate young man was in company with a friend named Henry Fox, also of this city, and was in the act of eating some persimmons when the trigger of his gun caught in a twig, discharging the weapon, which was cocked, causing the load to enter his right arm. His companion carried him about a mile and a half on his back, fording streams and wading through mud. He stopped at a farm house with his friend where a young woman tied a bandage around Mr. Coffin's arm in attempts to stop the flow of blood. Later the services of a physician were procured, and subsequently the injured man was placed on a train and brought to this city. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital about 9 o'clock, where Dr. Purvis, Smith, T. S. Gibson and Snowden rendered further surgical assistance. The arm is seriously shattered, but the surgeons are resorting to every possible means to avoid amputation. Mr. Coffin is a brother of Engineer Thos. Coffin and is employed at the Virginia Glass Works.

Personal.

Rev. I. M. Mercer, D. D., of Richmond, formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, will preach in that church tomorrow night, at eight o'clock, before the Woman's Missionary Society. Members of other churches are invited to attend.

Rev. Father Tierney, of Falls Church, was in the city today.

Colonel John S. Mosby was in the city today.

Messrs. August Oehlert and Frank M. Hamilton left this evening for Beaufort, S. C., on a ten-days' hunting trip. While there they will be the guests of Lieutenant Charles L. Fisher and Police Commissioner Thomas Fisher, who will spend the winter at Beaufort.

Clearing Weather.

The rainy weather and northeast winds of yesterday were followed by clearing conditions last night, and this morning the breaks in the clouds and crisp northwest winds indicated that clear and cooler weather was at hand. The November of 1902 has not been characterized by severe weather so far; on the contrary much of the month has been noted for mild Indian summer weather which was enjoyed by all, especially those with depleted coal bins. The wintry blasts, however, in the natural order of things cannot be much longer deferred, and marked drops in the temperature are imminent.

Daughters of America Fair.

The fair now being conducted by Mount Vernon Council, D. of A., at Odd Fellows' Hall, has proven to be interesting throughout, and numbers attend nightly. The voting now stands as follows:
Gold Watch—Miss Lillian Elsom, 3; Miss Mamie Griffin, 4; Miss Edith Beach, 2.
Elk's Tooth—Mr. J. Frank Hill, 5; Mr. George F. Bradley, 3; Mr. Edward Shinn, 1.
Carving Set—Mrs. Mamie McLearen, 3; M. J. Drew, 4.
There will be a musical entertainment tonight.

Centennial Celebration.

Messrs. W. K. Hunkamp, H. H. Johnston, A. B. Batts, S. J. Quinn and Clarence R. Howard, representing Fredericksburg Lodge, No. 4, A. F. and A. M. passed through this city for Washington this evening to attend the Masonic centennial celebration in that city tonight. They brought along with them the famous old lodge Bible on which General Washington took his first degree as a member of the craft. A number of Masons from this city will go to Washington tonight to attend the celebration.

Opera House.

The "Two Married Men," the great comedy success, will be produced at the Opera House tomorrow night. The company is headed by William Colton and Frederick Gottlieb, character comedians, with an adequate support and the superb scenic surroundings, the production could not help but make a deep impression. The play is mounted in a most elaborate manner, the stage settings being in keeping with the ideas. A large audience will doubtless greet the company.

Church Notes.

Revival services were held at Trinity Church again last night and the interest is unabated. The services will be continued tonight.

The special services in the First Presbyterian Church continue to attract interest. They will be continued at 8 o'clock tonight.

Revival services are in progress at the Village Chapel on Gibson street. Rev. Mr. Welch is conducting the services.

More Complaints.

People who place flowers on the graves of deceased relatives and friends are again complaining of the acts of vandals or thoughtless children who remove them almost as fast as they are carried to the cemeteries. Some lot owners are much exasperated and threaten to prosecute the offenders.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Charles Gaskins, an old and well-known colored resident, died at his home, corner of Orinwood and Payne streets, yesterday.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Absalom McGee and Cecily Timblich, both of Spotsylvania county.

Among the horses that took ribbons at the New York Horse Show today were "Ogenqu" exhibited by Mr. C. H. Smith, of this county.

Two white men, who were sent to the chain gang this week for non-payment of fines, refused to work this morning and were placed in solitary confinement.

Robert Jenkins, an old colored resident, who for many years conducted a blacksmith shop at the foot of Duke street, has recently been suffering from mental troubles, and has been taken in charge by the authorities.

A newly married couple drove up to the studio of a photographer on King street this evening for the purpose of having their picture taken and in a few minutes a large crowd gathered around the place and waited there until the objects of their curiosity came out and drove away.

The semi-centennial celebration of the founding of Washington Centennial Lodge, No. 14, A. F. and A. M., will be held at the Masonic Temple in Washington tonight. The members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of this city have been invited and will leave here on the 7:15 train.

The "Fittell shirts" which are being sold at marked-down prices by Isaac Eichberg & Son are meeting with ready sale.
G. E. Price & Co. will have a fine display of fresh fish in market tomorrow.

Jumped on a Ten-Penny Nail

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and one nail was thrust entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.
